YOU ARE BEING SUED BY PLAINTIFF: JACOB GREGOIRE
(LO ESTÁ DEMANDANDO EL DEMANDANTE):

NOTICE! You have been sued. The court may decide against you without your being heard unless you respond within 30 days. Read the information below.

You have 30 CALENDAR DAYS after this summons and legal papers are served on you to file a written response at this court and have a copy served on the plaintiff. A letter or phone call will not protect you. Your written response must be in proper legal form if you want the court to hear your case. There may be a court form that you can use for your response. You can find these court forms and more information at the California Courts Online Self-Help Center (www.courtinfo.ca.gov/selfhelp), your county law library, or the courthouse nearest you. If you cannot pay the filing fee, ask the court clerk for a fee waiver form. If you do not file your response on time, you may lose the case by default, and your wages, money, and property may be taken without further warning from the court.

There are other legal requirements. You may want to call an attorney right away. If you do not know an attorney, you may want to call an attorney referral service. If you cannot afford an attorney, you may be eligible for free legal services from a nonprofit legal services program. You can locate these nonprofit groups at the California Legal Services Web site (www.lawhelpcalifornia.org), the California Courts Online Self-Help Center (www.courtinfo.ca.gov/selfhelp), or by contacting your local court or county bar association. NOTE: The court has a statutory lien for waived fees and costs on any settlement or arbitration award of $10,000 or more in a civil case. The court's lien must be paid before the court will dismiss the case. AVISO! Lo han demandado. Si no responde dentro de 30 días, la corte puede decidir en su contra sin escuchar su versión. Lea la información a continuación.

Tiene 30 DÍAS DE CALENDARIO después de que le entreguen esta citación y papeles legales para presentar una respuesta por escrito en esta corte y hacer que se entregue una copia al demandante. Una carta o una llamada telefónica no lo protegen. Su respuesta por escrito tiene que estar en formato legal correcto si desea que procesen su caso en la corte. Es posible que haya un formulario que usted pueda usar para su respuesta. Puede encontrar estos formularios de la corte y más información en el Centro de Ayuda de las Cortes de California (www.sucorte.ca.gov), en la biblioteca de leyes de su condado o en la corte que le quede más cerca. Si no puede pagar la cuota de presentación, pida al secretario de la corte que le dé un formulario de exención de pago de cuotas. Si no presenta su respuesta a tiempo, puede perder el caso por incumplimiento y la corte le podrá quitar su sueldo, dinero y bienes sin más advertencia.

Hay otros requisitos legales. Es recomendable que llame a un abogado inmediatamente. Si no conoce a un abogado, puede llamar a un servicio de remisión a abogados. Si no puede pagar a un abogado, es posible que cumpla con los requisitos para obtener servicios legales gratuitos de un programa de servicios legales sin fines de lucro. Puede encontrar estos grupos sin fines de lucro en el sitio web de California Legal Services, (www.lawhelpcalifornia.org), en el Centro de Ayuda de las Cortes de California, (www.sucorte.ca.gov) o poniéndose en contacto con la corte o el colegio de abogados locales. AVISO: Por ley, la corte tiene derecho a reclamar las cuotas y los costos exentos por imponer un gravamen sobre cualquier recuperación de $10,000 ó más de valor recibida mediante un acuerdo o una concesión de arbitraje en un caso de derecho civil. SUPERIOR COURT OF CALIFORNIA, COUNTY OF SAN DIEGO

ALTERNATIVE DISPUTE RESOLUTION (ADR) INFORMATION

CASE NUMBER: 37-2014-00018861-CU-CR-CTL CASE TITLE:

Gregoire vs California Highway Patrol [Imaged]

NOTICE: All plaintiffs/cross-complainants in a general civil case are required to serve a copy of the following three forms on each defendant/cross-defendant, together with the complaint/cross-complaint:

- (1) this Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR) Information form (SDSC form #CIV-730),
- (2) the Stipulation to Use Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR) form (SDSC form #CIV-359), and
- (3) the Notice of Case Assignment form (SDSC form #CIV-721).

Most civil disputes are resolved without filing a lawsuit, and most civil lawsuits are resolved without a trial. The courts, community organizations, and private providers offer a variety of Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR) processes to help people resolve disputes without a trial. The San Diego Superior Court expects that litigants will utilize some form of ADR as a mechanism for case settlement before trial, and it may be beneficial to do this early in the case.

Below is some information about the potential advantages and disadvantages of ADR, the most common types of ADR, and how to find a local ADR program or neutral. A form for agreeing to use ADR is attached (SDSC form #CIV-359).

Potential Advantages and Disadvantages of ADR

ADR may have a variety of advantages or disadvantages over a trial, depending on the type of ADR process used and the particular case:

Potential Advantages

- Saves time
- Saves money
- Gives parties more control over the dispute resolution process and outcome
- Preserves or improves relationships

Potential Disadvantages

- May take more time and money if ADR does not resolve the dispute
- Procedures to learn about the other side's case (discovery), jury trial, appeal, and other court protections may be limited or unavailable

Most Common Types of ADR

You can read more information about these ADR processes and watch videos that demonstrate them on the court's ADR webpage at <http://www.sdcourt.ca.gov/adr>.

Mediation: A neutral person called a "mediator" helps the parties communicate in an effective and constructive manner so they can try to settle their dispute. The mediator does not decide the outcome, but helps the parties to do so.

Mediation is usually confidential, and may be particularly useful when parties want or need to have an ongoing relationship, such as in disputes between family members, neighbors, co-workers, or business partners, or when parties want to discuss non-legal concerns or creative resolutions that could not be ordered at a trial.

Settlement Conference: A judge or another neutral person called a "settlement officer" helps the parties to understand the strengths and weaknesses of their case and to discuss settlement. The judge or settlement officer does not make a decision in the case but helps the parties to negotiate a settlement. Settlement conferences may be particularly helpful when the parties have very different ideas about the likely outcome of a trial and would like an experienced neutral to help guide them toward a resolution.

Arbitration: A neutral person called an "arbitrator" considers arguments and evidence presented by each side and then decides the outcome of the dispute. Arbitration is less formal than a trial, and the rules of evidence are usually relaxed. If the parties agree to binding arbitration, they waive their right to a trial and agree to accept the arbitrator's decision as final. With nonbinding arbitration, any party may reject the arbitrator's decision and request a trial. Arbitration may be appropriate when the parties want another person to decide the outcome of their dispute but would like to avoid the formality, time, and expense of a trial.

Other ADR Processes: There are several other types of ADR which are not offered through the court but which may be obtained privately, including neutral evaluation, conciliation, fact finding, mini-trials, and summary jury trials. Sometimes parties will try a combination of ADR processes. The important thing is to try to find the type or types of ADR that are most likely to resolve your dispute. Be sure to learn about the rules of any ADR program and the qualifications of any neutral you are considering, and about their fees.

Local ADR Programs for Civil Cases

Mediation: The San Diego Superior Court maintains a Civil Mediation Panel of approved mediators who have met certain minimum qualifications and have agreed to charge $150 per hour for each of the first two (2) hours of mediation and their regular hourly rate thereafter in court-referred mediations.

On-line mediator search and selection: Go to the court's ADR webpage at www.sdcourt.ca.gov/adr and click on the "Mediator Search" to review individual mediator profiles containing detailed information about each mediator including their dispute resolution training, relevant experience, ADR specialty, education and employment history, mediation style, and fees and to submit an on-line Mediator Selection Form (SDSC form #CIV-005). The Civil Mediation Panel List, the Available Mediator List, individual Mediator Profiles, and Mediator Selection Form (CIV-005) can also be printed from the court's ADR webpage and are available at the Mediation Program Office or Civil Business Office at each court location.

Settlement Conference: The judge may order your case to a mandatory settlement conference, or voluntary settlement conferences may be requested from the court if the parties certify that: (1) settlement negotiations between the parties have been pursued, demands and offers have been tendered in good faith, and resolution has failed; (2) a judicially supervised settlement conference presents a substantial opportunity for settlement; and (3) the case has developed to a point where all parties are legally and factually prepared to present the issues for settlement consideration and further discovery for settlement purposes is not required. Refer to SDSC Local Rule 2.2.1 for more information. To schedule a settlement conference, contact the department to which your case is assigned.

Arbitration: The San Diego Superior Court maintains a panel of approved judicial arbitrators who have practiced law for a minimum of five years and who have a certain amount of trial and/or arbitration experience. Refer to SDSC Local Rules Division II, Chapter III and Code Civ. Proc. § 1141.10 et seq or contact the Arbitration Program Office at (619) 450-7300 for more information.

More information about court-connected ADR: Visit the court's ADR webpage at www.sdcourt.ca.gov/adr or contact the court's Mediation/Arbitration Office at (619) 450-7300.

Dispute Resolution Programs Act (DRPA) funded ADR Programs: The following community dispute resolution programs are funded under DRPA (Bus. and Prof. Code §§ 465 et seq.):

- In Central, East, and South San Diego County, contact the National Conflict Resolution Center (NCRC) at www.ncrconline.com or (619) 238-2400.
- In North San Diego County, contact North County Lifeline, Inc. at www.nclifeline.org or (760) 726-4900.

Private ADR: To find a private ADR program or neutral, search the Internet, your local telephone or business directory, or legal newspaper for dispute resolution, mediation, settlement, or arbitration services.

Legal Representation and Advice

To participate effectively in ADR, it is generally important to understand your legal rights and responsibilities and the likely outcomes if you went to trial. ADR neutrals are not allowed to represent or to give legal advice to the participants in the ADR process. If you do not already have an attorney, the California State Bar or your local County Bar Association can assist you in finding an attorney. Information about obtaining free and low cost legal assistance is also available on the California courts website at www.courtinfo.ca.gov/selfhelp/lowcost.

3 their identities have been ascertained as well as the facts giving rise to their liability.

4 5. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that each of the Doe
5 defendants is responsible in some manner, either by act or omission, strict liability, fraud, negligence
6 or otherwise, for the occurrences herein alleged, and that Plaintiff's harm was legally caused by 7 conduct of the Doe defendants.

8 6. As a prerequisite to filing this complaint, on or about March 21, 2014, Plaintiff filed
9 a Claim for Damages, pursuant to Government Code section 910, with the California Victim
10 Compensation and Government Claims Board. The claim was rejected on May 23, 2014.

FACTS

11 7. Plaintiff realleges all prior paragraphs of this complaint and incorporates the same 12 herein.

13 8. On February 4, 2014, at about 8:00 p.m., a "rollover" automobile accident occurred
14 on Interstate 805 in the City of Chula Vista.

15 9. Plaintiff was dispatched and responded to the accident in his professional capacity
16 as a Fire Engineer for the City of Chula Vista.

17 10. Plaintiff drove Chula Vista Fire Engine 52 ("E52") to the accident scene. Chula Vista 18 Fire Department Captain David Albright was on board E52 and assumed Incident Command, in 19 accordance with the Incident Command System ("ICS"). ICS is used by all first responders in 20 California.

21 11. Upon arriving at the accident scene, Plaintiff positioned E52 in the far left lane (#1 22 lane) approximately 25 feet behind an ambulance that was on the scene.

23 12. Plaintiff positioned his vehicle in the manner that he had been trained in order to 24 protect the Emergency Medical Service personnel during patient packaging and loading into the 25 ambulance and to provide lighting at the scene.

26 13. Plaintiff exited E52 and walked to the accident scene to search for trapped victims
27 in the overturned vehicle and to assist with patient care.

1 14. As Plaintiff was actively involved in treating the patients, Defendant Flores yelled
2 at Plaintiff to move E52.

3 15. Plaintiff explained to Defendant Flores that he was engaged in the treatment of the 4 patients and that E52 was parked where it was for the safety of the rescue operation.

5 16. Defendant Flores then told Plaintiff and Chula Vista Fire Captain David Albright,
6 who was standing near Plaintiff, that he wanted all of the fire engines gone and back to the fire
7 station and that he (Defendant Flores) did not want the firefighters involved in patient care.

8 17. Both Captain Albright, the Incident Commander, and Plaintiff advised Defendant
9 Flores that they would not move the vehicles at that time because they were actively involved in 10 patient care.

11 18. Defendant Flores responded that the patients "were not his problem" and threatened
12 that if Plaintiff did not leave immediately Defendant Flores would arrest him.

13 19. Plaintiff responded again that he could not leave.

14 20. Defendant Flores yelled at Plaintiff to climb over the wall between them and come 15 to him.

16 21. Plaintiff climbed over the wall and went to Defendant Flores and was handcuffed by 17 Defendant Flores.

18 22. Plaintiff asked Defendant Flores if they could discuss the matter and "work this out."
19 Defendant Flores responded that Plaintiff had been given an opportunity to follow Defendant Flores'
20 orders and he was now under arrest.

21 23. Defendant handcuffed Plaintiff. Plaintiff asked Defendant Flores if he could loosen
22 the handcuffs because they were extremely tight. Defendant Flores tightened the handcuffs.

23 24. Defendant Flores deliberately placed Plaintiff in harm's way by searching him in an 24 open freeway lane as cars drove by at relatively high rates of speed. Plaintiff asked Defendant to 25 conduct the search in a safer place out of traffic. Defendant confiscated Plaintiff's helmet, radio, 26 flashlight, pocketknife and a strap of webbing.

27 25. Plaintiff again asked if Defendant would loosen the handcuffs, as they were causing 28 pain to both his wrists and shoulders. Defendant ignored Plaintiff's request and placed Plaintiff in

1 Defendant's patrol vehicle.

2 26. Plaintiff asked Defendant Flores what he was being arrested for. Defendant Flores
3 responded "148." Plaintiff asked what 148 was. Defendant Flores responded "obeying."

4 27. Plaintiff was detained in Defendant Flores' police vehicle for approximately 30
5 minutes. Defendant Flores then opened the vehicle door and told Plaintiff "this is not over yet, you
6 are not being arrested but I am not done with you. You are going to answer for your actions."

7 28. At all relevant times Defendant Flores was acting pursuant to his authority as a
8 California Highway Patrol officer and under color of law.

THE SUPERIOR COURT OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA COUNTY OF SAN DIEGO

IN RE PROCEDURES REGARDING

GENERAL ORDER OF THE PRESIDING DEPARTMENT
ORDER NO. 010214-24 (A)

This order supersedes General Order No.: 010214-24.

THIS COURT FINDS AND ORDERS AS FOLLOWS:

On August 1, 2011, the San Diego Superior Court ("court") began an Electronic Filing and Imaging Pilot Program ("Program") designed to reduce paper filings and storage, facilitate electronic access to civil court files and, in Phase Two, allow remote electronic filing ("E-File" or "E-Filing") of papers in civil cases. The ultimate goal of the Program is to create a paperless or electronic file in all civil cases, as well as in other case categories.

Phase One of the Program, described in General Order: In re Procedures Regarding Electronically Imaged Court Records, Electronic Filing, and Access to Electronic Court Records, involved the court's scanning of papers in newly filed cases in designated divisions and departments (the "Imaging Project"). Phase Two of the Program

1 involved the implementation of electronic filing by counsel and parties through the court's
2 E-File Service Provider, One Legal. Electronic filing under Phase Two of the Program
3 was limited to the Central Civil Division only and it excluded Probate and Construction
4 Defect Cases. Electronic filing under Phase Three of the Program expanded electronic
5 filing to include permissive electronic filing in Probate cases. North County Civil Divisions
6 of the Superior Court and Construction Defect cases, in the Central Division, were 7 excluded from Phase Three of the Program.

8 Electronic Filing under Phase Four of the Program expands electronic filing to 9 include mandatory E-Filing in Construction Defect Cases in the Central Division through 10 the court's E-File Service Provider. This General Order relates to Phase Four, and 11 supplements General Orders: In re Procedures Regarding Electronically Imaged Court
12 Records, Electronic Filing, and Access to Electronic Court Records.

13 Effective June 2, 2014, mandatory electronic filing through the court E-File Service
14 Provider One Legal will be required for all Construction Defect Cases, including those 15 currently being filed through File&Serve Xpress (fka LexisNexis File&Serve). As of 5:01
16 p.m. on May 30, 2014, no documents will be allowed to be filed through File&Serve 17 Xpress. Further information on these initiatives can be found on the court's website, at 18 www.sdcourt.ca.gov.

19 Filing and service of documents by electronic means is governed by Code of Civil 20 Procedure Section 1010.6 and California Rules of Court ("CRC"), rules 2.250 et seq. and 21 CRC 2.30. In addition, the San Diego Superior Court's specific requirements for E-filing
22 are available on the court's website at www.sdcourt.ca.gov. Litigants and attorneys 23 electronically filing documents must comply with all applicable rules and requirements.

24 This General Order supercedes and replaces all Electronic Filing and Service
25 Orders previously entered in Construction Defect Cases.

26 GENERAL E-FILING REQUIREMENTS

27 Documents can only be electronically filed through the court's electronic service
28 provider (the "Provider"). E-file Provider information is available on the court's website.

1 Any document filed electronically shall be considered as filed with the Clerk of the 2 Superior Court when it is first transmitted to the Provider and the transmission is
3 completed, except that any document filed on a day that the court is not open for business,
4 or after 5:00 p.m. (Pacific Time) on a day the court is open for business, shall be deemed 5 to have been filed on the next court day.

6 Additional and more specific information on electronic filing can be found on the 7 court's website.

8 This Order shall expire on December 31, 2014, unless otherwise ordered by this 9 court.

10 IT IS SO ORDERED.

SAN DIEGO SUPERIOR COURT – CENTRAL CIVIL DIVISION

These requirements are issued pursuant to California Rules of Court ("CRC"), rules 2.250 et seq., Code of Civil Procedure section 1010.6, and San Diego Superior Court General Order: In re Procedures Regarding Electronic Filing.

Effective November 1, 2013, documents that are determined to be unacceptable for eFiling by the Court due to eFiling system restrictions or for failure to comply with these requirements will be rejected subject to being allowed to be filed nunc pro tunc to the original submittal date upon ex-parte application to the court and upon good cause shown.

It is the duty of the plaintiff (and cross-complainant) to serve a copy of the General Order of the Presiding Department, Order No. 010214-24A, and Electronic Filing Requirements of the San Diego Superior Court with the complaint (and cross-complaint).

PERMISSIVE eFILING

Effective March 4, 2013, documents may be filed electronically in non-mandated civil cases in the Central Division where either: (1) the case is first initiated on or after March 4, 2013; or (2) the case is already pending as of March 4, 2013 and has been imaged by the court.

MANDATORY eFILING

The case types that shall be subject to mandatory eFiling are: civil class actions; consolidated and coordinated actions where all cases involved are imaged cases; and actions that are provisionally complex under CRC 3.400-3.403 (as set forth in the Civil Cover Sheet, Judicial Council form CM-010 – including Construction Defect actions). “Complex cases” included in mandatory eFiling include Antitrust/Trade Regulation, Mass Tort, Environmental/Toxic Tort, and Securities Litigation cases, as well as insurance coverage claims arising from these case types. Effective June 2, 2014 Construction Defect and other cases, currently being electronically filed through File&Serve Xpress (fka LexisNexis File&Serve), must be electronically filed through the court’s Electronic Filing Service Provider, One Legal.

Documents electronically filed in Construction Defect and other cases prior to June 2, 2014 will be maintained in the File&Serve Xpress system and can be viewed via a File&Serve Xpress subscription or on the Public Access Terminal (PAT) located in Room 241 of the Hall of Justice (2nd floor).

For cases of the type subject to mandatory EFiling that are initiated on or after March 4, 2013, all documents must be filed electronically, subject to the exceptions set forth below.

For cases of the type subject to mandatory EFiling that are already pending as of March 3, 2013, and provided that the case has been imaged by the court, all documents filed on or after March 4, 2013 must be filed electronically, subject to the exceptions set forth below.

A party may request to be excused from mandatory electronic filing requirements. This request must be in writing and may be made by ex parte application to the judge or department to whom the case is assigned. The clerk will not accept or file any documents in paper form that are required to be filed electronically, absent a court order allowing the filing.

Self-represented litigants are not required to Efile in a mandatory Efile case; however, they may Efile if they choose to do so and/or are otherwise ordered to Efile by the court.

REQUIREMENTS FOR ALL eFILERS

EFile documents can only be filed through the court's Electronic Filing Service Provider (the "Provider"). See www.onelegal.com.

EFilers must comply with CRC 2.250-2.261. Also, all documents electronically filed must be in a text searchable format, i.e., OCR. The court is unable to accept documents that do not comply with these requirements, or documents that include but are not limited to: digitized signatures, fillable forms, or a negative image.

Documents that contain exhibits must be bookmarked, as set forth on the Provider's site. Documents not so bookmarked are subject to rejection. Moving papers with exhibits that are not bookmarked will be rejected. (See CRC 3.1110(f) with bookmarking being the substitute for plastic tabs in electronically filed documents.)

Exhibits to be considered via a Notice of Lodgment shall not be attached to the electronically filed Notice of Lodgment; instead, the submitting party must provide the assigned department with hard copies of the exhibits with a copy of the Notice of Lodgment that includes the eFiling Transaction ID# noted in the upper right hand corner.

Unless otherwise required by law, per CRC 1.20(b) only the last four digits of a social security or financial account number may be reflected in court case filings. Exclusion or redaction is the responsibility of the filer, not the clerk, CRC 1.20(b)(3). Failure to comply with this requirement may result in monetary sanctions, CRC 2.30(b).

Proposed filings, such as proposed court orders and amended complaints, should be submitted as an exhibit and then re-submitted as a separate and new eFiling transaction after the Court has ruled on the matter to which the proposed document applies. See also CRC 3.1312.

Any document filed electronically shall be considered as filed with the Clerk of the Superior Court when it is first transmitted to the vendor and the transmission is completed, except that any document filed on a day that the court is not open for business, or after 5:00 p.m. (Pacific Time) on a day the court is open for business, shall be deemed to have been filed on the next court day.

Please be advised that you must schedule a motion hearing date directly with the Independent Calendar Department. A motion filed without an appointment, even when a conformed copy of the filing is provided by the court, is not scheduled and the hearing will not occur.

If a hearing is set within 2 court days of the time documents are electronically filed, litigant(s) must provide hard copies of the documents to the court. Transaction ID numbers must be noted on the documents to the extent it is feasible to do so.
